

DRIVING SOLUTION

Fast Track Solution Learn and pass within 3 weeks

With our Intensive course you could be trained and pass you're driving test within 1 to 3 weeks, depending on your previous driving experience.

To do the intensive course with us first you need to choose the intensive course that you think you need, we have provided the key points below to help you. We use the same key points to decide which intensive course will be suitable for you.

After you make your choice we need your completed application form send to us by email or post (address below) with a deposit of £90 or £130 if you need the theory test. Click here. The £90 deposit will be deducted from the total price of the Intensive course.

Free assessment lesson if you pay deposit online, or on the day of your assessment lesson. Otherwise its £21 for an hour assessment lesson.

After we receive your application form with the deposit we will arrange an hour assessment lesson for free to see if you have chosen the right Intensive course which is suitable for you to pass your driving test. If not we will advice you for another course.

If you and we agree to the Intensive course then we will book you a driving test date and the theory test if you needed.

After we book the test we will contact you and arrange the agreed hours of training for you on your convenient date and time. We will make all the appointments working backward from your test date to provide all the hours of training with minimum of 2 hours a day leading up to your driving test day.
